

Stellar Travel

in partnership with

Information Sheet

Stellar Travel

Stellar Travel is one of Ghana's leading travel management companies and has been providing services to the corporate market since 1991. Our emphasis has always been on quality and reliability and this we have managed to maintain throughout our growth and diversification of product. Stellar Travel is focused on the provision of corporate travel services and has tailored its products in particular to overseas organizations that have operations in West Africa. We know and understand the requirements in particular of the oil and gas sector, the mining industry, the diplomatic community, banking and the non-governmental agencies based in Ghana, along with a wide range of commercial companies and private individuals that need a consistency of service and a guarantee of performance.

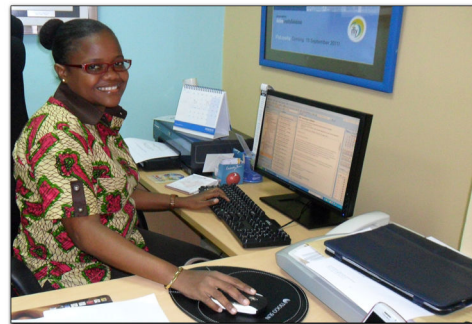

Ticketing

We are capable of making arrangements for all aspects of international & domestic travel. Whether your itinerary is a simple return trip or a long and complicated multi-destination trip, we will find you the right ticket at the right price and ensure your loyalty club preferences are respected.

We constantly aim to provide our customers with great value, an efficient and informative service and the expertise and assistance of our team of travel consultants, who are on hand to help you 24/7 365 days of the year. As an IATA accredited travel agency, Stellar Travel has Preferred 'Sales Agent' status with all of the major airlines operating in Ghana and often we are able to negotiate special fares to certain high-volume destinations on behalf of our clients.

Stellar Travel's main services:

- Airline ticketing, hotel booking and reservations
- Travel policy development
- Account management
- Supplier negotiations
- Car leasing and rentals
- Visas and immigration services
- Transfers
- Tour services (domestic and international)
- 24/7 emergency travel support

Travel Offers

As one of the longest-established travel agencies in Ghana, Stellar Travel has access to a wide range of fares from the airline industry and is kept up to date with schedule changes, flight cancellations and other news items. We regularly distribute this information to our customers by e-mail using our database of contacts as an additional complimentary service.

Airport Services and Passenger Assistance

We offer a full transport service to and from Kotoka International Airport in our chauffeur driven buses and 4x4's. We also offer a full range of visa services for entry into Ghana, and also to many other international destinations.